

2023 WEATHER SPOTTER TRAINING

The Jackson County Office of Emergency Management & Homeland Security Division, will be hosting Weather Spotter Training. This free training will be presented by the National Weather Service (NWS) and is open to everyone who wants to learn more about severe weather and how you can help your community.

Spotter reports can be critically important. These volunteers help keep their local communities safe by providing timely and accurate reports of severe weather to the National Weather Service. Spotter reports provide ground truth that is essential to helping the NWS understand how a storm is developing and moving.

When: Saturday, March 4th. 2:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Where: Jackson County Human Services Building, Room 005, 1715 Lansing Ave., Jackson, MI 49202.

To reserve your spot, please contact Emergency Management Director, Jason Breining at jbreining@mijackson.org or 517-768-7946.
